The Bible. Our founders were Christian, deeply rooted in the scriptures. Quaker faith and practice is especially reflected in The Letter of James. The Gospel of John has been called the Quaker gospel. Revelation may help in understanding "The Lamb's War," which was a phrase early Quakers used for their evangelical crusade. "The Sermon on the Mount" (Matthew 5-7) helps give a sense of the radical transformation that Jesus and early Friends were calling for.
